NPA Adds 34 New Members During the 2nd Quarter

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The Natural Products Association (NPA), the oldest and largest association dedicated solely to the natural products industry, continues their strong membership growth during the second quarter of 2017, welcoming 34 new members to the organization.

“NPA’s robust modernization and restructuring program has strengthened the entire organization, opening up membership to a more diverse group within the industry, bringing in members representing an evolving industry that strengthens and solidifies the industry’s voice as NPA interacts with regulatory agencies and our legislators to protect consumers’ access to natural products,” said Dan Fabricant, Ph.D., President and CEO of NPA.

NPA’s industry tools and resources, along with pro-active advocacy efforts, continue to attract new members who know that the industry’s well being requires that they become involved.
